Excellence in Assessment Designation
ECU was named as one of just twelve members of the 2020 class of Excellence in Assessment designees, a national program aimed at recognizing colleges and universities conducting comprehensive assessment of student learning outcomes as a means to drive internal improvement and advance student success. The Excellence in Assessment (EIA) designation is the first national designation of its kind, spotlighting institutions that successfully integrate assessment practices across the institution, providing evidence of student learning, and using assessment results to guide institutional decision-making and improve student performance.

Strategic Planning Update
All college annual reports have been reviewed and the administrative reviews will be completed by September 21st. Consultations will be scheduled with each unit to discuss the feedback and make any necessary edits to the plans or reports. The Strategic Planning Committee will meet in February to review the institutional metrics.

Assessment Reporting Update
- Current Reporting Status:
  - Educational Programs: 98% of the units have reported (214 out of 218).
  - Support Units: 83% of the units have reported (48 out of 58).
  - IA has been in touch with units that have not yet reported.
- I-ARC Process for Fall 2020: The I-ARC will review 1/3 of Academic Affairs educational programs, ½ of Health Sciences educational programs and ½ of support units (total of 78 educational programs and 29 support units). Virtual trainings are scheduled for:

General Education Assessment Update

- Modifications to the GE Humanities Data Collection
  - Due to COVID-19 and transition to alternate delivery methods, departments were given the option to postpone the data collection to the fall semester. As ECU will need to respond to the GE SACSCOC standards in the next reaccreditation report due in Fall 2022, the humanities competency assessment will be used as evidence. Thus, it is important for us to complete the data collection in the fall.
    - Data collection completed
      - Classics (Fall 19 & Spring 2020)
      - Philosophy (Spring 2020)
    - Data collection not complete
      - Religious Studies: collected one course data in the Spring 2020, will collect more data in Fall 2020
      - Foreign Language and Literature: Fall 2020
      - English: Fall 2020
  - Math and Written Communication data will be collected during the Fall 2020 and Spring 2021 semesters.

Program Reviews 2020-2021

- Fall Academic Program Reviews will be conducted virtually. The schedule is:
  - October 11-13: Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies
  - October 18-20: University Studies program
  - October 25-27: Department of Mathematics Education, Science Education, and Instructional Technology
- Academic Program Reviews and Centers and Institutes Comprehensive Reviews scheduled for spring 2021 include:
